

UfM Secretariat congratulates Egypt on the adoption of new constitution

Barcelona, 29 January, 2013. The Secretariat of the Union for the Mediterranean would like to congratulate the Egyptian people for the massive approval of the new constitution in the referendum organised lately. This new constitution is an essential step in the transition process and will certainly lay the ground for new political, economic and social achievements for the Egyptian people.

The Secretariat of the Union for the Mediterranean also wishes to confirm its commitment alongside the Egyptian Government at this historical moment towards a better future and will support its efforts aiming at economic and social development.

About the UfM

The Union for the Mediterranean (UfM) is an intergovernmental institution bringing together 43 countries: 28 EU member states and 15 Southern and Eastern Mediterranean countries. It constitutes a platform for political dialogue, coordination, cooperation and consensus building.

The Secretariat of the Union for the Mediterranean, established in Barcelona in 2010, focuses on implementing regional cooperation projects and initiatives in areas such as energy, environment, education, transport, business development and social affairs. The Secretariat works in close collaboration with governments and with an active network of Euro-Mediterranean partners to assist project promoters throughout the entire project cycle: from technical assistance to project implementation, including financial planning and fundraising.

Contact

media@ufmsecretariat.org

T. +34 935 214 198

www.ufmsecretariat.org

The UfM Secretariat is co-funded by the European Union