

UNFCCC COP 27

Sharm El-Sheikh, Egypt

06– 18 November 2022

Session title: Climate Change and Security in the Mediterranean Region

Lead organization: Mediterranean Experts on Climate and environmental Change (MedECC)

Day and time slot: 12th November (Adaptation and Agriculture Day), 17h30-18h30 local time in Egypt, UTC+2.

Moderator: Veronica Fernandes (Rainews24)

Time	Activity	Speaker
5 minutes	Welcoming remarks	Moderator: Fernandes Veronica, RAI
8 minutes	Framing the climate emergency in the Mediterranean	Andrea DESSI. Scientific Director, New Med Research Network, Head, Italian Foreign Policy programme, Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI).
8 minutes	The Mediterranean as a climate change hotspot: implications for State and societal resilience	Wolfgang CRAMER. IMBE, CNRS, France. Coordinator of MedECC, Lead of the cross-chapter paper on the Mediterranean Region of the IPCC AR6
8 minutes	Climate and environmental change and risks for conflict and human migration	Roula MAJDALANI. Senior Climate Advisor, ICRDA – One CGIAR, Lebanon.
8 minutes	Renewable energy in the Mediterranean: pathways for multilateral cooperation	Silvia PARIENTE-DAVID. Consultant on energy and climate change.
8 minutes	The governance of the climate-human security nexus in the Mediterranean	Mohamed BEHNASSI. Senior Environmentalist Expert, Economic Social & Environmental Council (ESEC) & Director, Center for Environment, Human Security & Governance (CERES), Rabat, Morocco.
10 minutes	Round-table on the science-policy interface in the Mediterranean	Moderator, panelists and audience
5 minutes	Final remarks	Lina Tode. Deputy Director of Plan Bleu, UNEP/MAP Regional Activity Center