

UfM in short

Mission

To enhance regional cooperation, dialogue and the implementation of concrete projects and initiatives with tangible impact on our citizens, mainly our youth, in order to address three strategic objectives for the region: human development, stability and integration.

43 Members

28 EU members and 15 Southern and Eastern Mediterranean countries. Their Senior Officials meet regularly to oversee and coordinate the activities of the UfM.

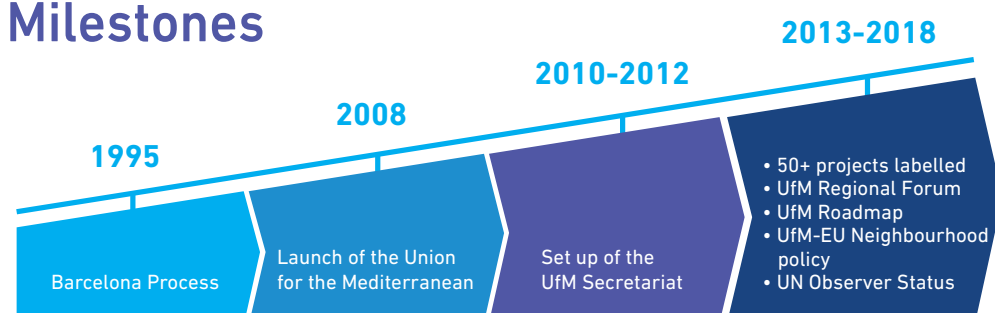

2 Co-Presidents

The EU and Jordan have assumed the Northern and Southern co-presidency since 2012, embodying the UfM principle of co-ownership.

1 Secretariat

Based in Barcelona, the Secretariat is the operational platform of the UfM.

- 25,000+ Stakeholders including representatives from governmental institutions, experts, regional and international organisations, local authorities, civil society, private sector and financial institutions (multi-stakeholder approach).
- Based on the political guidelines set by the Member States, the UfM structures an in-depth dialogue with all the actors involved in each sector of the regional cooperation.

Platforms

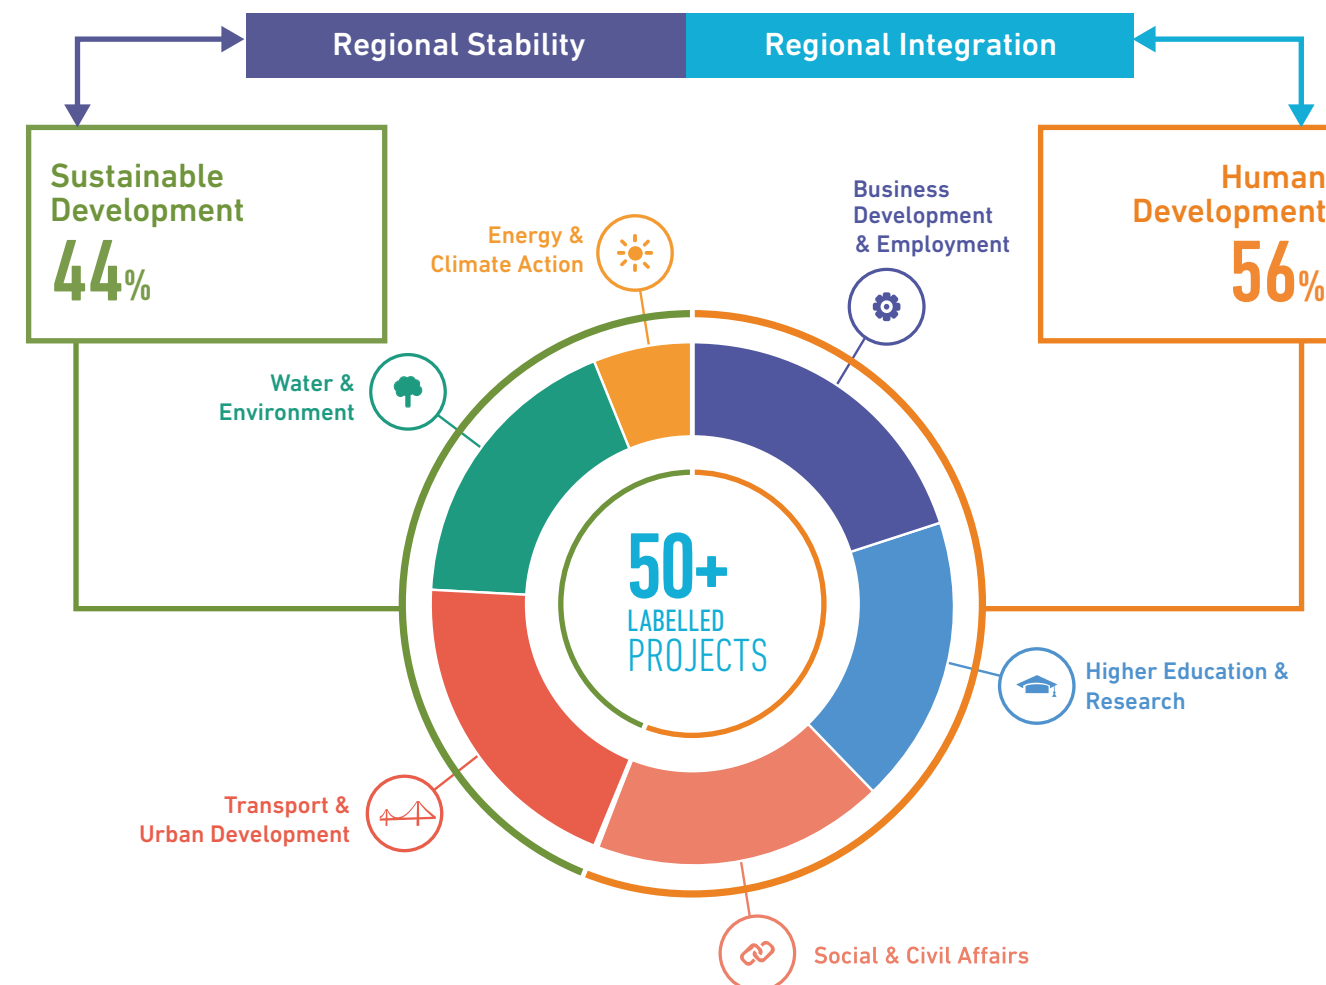

Projects with regional impact

The added value of the UfM lies in the interrelation created between the policy dimension and its operational translation into concrete projects on the ground.
