Visual identity guidelines

Logos

The logo of the Union for the Mediterranean is formed by two main parts (they should never be used separately): the isotype, which represents the Mediterranean Sea with a ship reflected in the sea; for that reason, the white/transparent color will always be on top, while the blue/dark color will stay at the bottom.

The second part of the logo displays the name of the institution in three languages: English, French and Arabic.

Sweden

The partnership agreement signed with the Swedish Cooperation Agency Sida on 24 January (entry into force on 1 February 2017) legally binds the UfM Secretariat to give visibility to Sweden in all the studies/reports/documents/events/communication material funded through the agreement.

Logo:

The logo in different languages and formats can be downloaded directly through this link, where you can also find the identity and design principles:

<https://identity.sweden.se/buildingblocks/primary-building-blocks-always-use#logos>

The Logo is used with 'Sverige' translated into the same language that is used for the communication material in question.

Wording to accompany the logo

The logo is to be used with the indication:

English:

"With financial support from"

French:

"Avec le soutien financier de "

Arabic:

"بدعم مالي من"

Spanish:

"Con el apoyo financiero de"

German Development

The partnership agreement signed with the German Development Cooperation binds the UfM Secretariat to give visibility to the German Development Cooperation in all the studies/reports/documents/events/communication material funded or co-funded through the agreement.

Whenever required, the following combination of logos should be included:

Implemented by

These logos will always be included on the cover, the imprint or the back cover of documents, publications, newsletters, and other printed materials.

For events co-organised with other institutions, the logos should also appear together with the other partners.

The above combination of the German cooperation logo and the GIZ logo can be obtained from the UfMS Communications Unit at communication@ufmsecretariat.org

You can find more information on GIZ corporate design principles here: <https://www.giz.de/cdc/en/html/index.html>

Color palette

The main color palette is composed of five colors. The first three colors are the main colors for designs; they are three cold tones that represent the colors of the Mediterranean Sea. The first blue tone is the color used for the logo, while the second and third ones are a purple and a light blue tone, which are the most frequently used. The grey and black colors are usually used for text and the body of designs.

Typography

The official typography of the UfM is DIN Next LT. It is a Sans Serif typography, simple and clear, which makes it easy to read. The italic style is used for quotes and text written in a foreign language.

The bold style is used for titles, names of projects and/or initiatives or to emphasize a specific sentence.
